Idyllic Country Lifestyle. A rare opportunity has come on the market. This beautiful log home overlooks the Colorado River Valley with unobstructed mountain views in every direction. Excellent water rights keep the grounds lush and offer endless possibilities including a vineyard, an orchard, organic garden or pasture. The classic covered porch and dutch door create a sense of home. The 50ft round pen and corral make this a wonderful horse property. Want privacy? This house sits at the end of a private road and at the end of the mesa. Come feel the tranquility amongst the grove of shade trees and 100 year old apricot trees. Iconic timber accents create an interior that offers for an expansive gathering space. Ideal for entertaining family and friends. The perfect window placement provides majestic mountain views from every room. Heated flagstone floors add warmth to the spacious living areas. This iconic log home is perfect as a primary residence, retreat, or special event venue. Top it off with a free natural gas tap that virtually eliminates utility bills and this really becomes an opportunity of a lifetime. No HOA. Only 5 minutes from I-70. Make this rustic yet luxurious log home yours! Bring your vision to this canvas - orchard, vineyard, event venue or a wonderful place to call home - the opportunities are limitless.
